Chief's Report (Exams and Coursework, published to students and external examiners – NOT required for resit examinations)

- Brief discussion (if necessary) as to why marks are outside expected range.
- Cohort feedback: What went well? What were the common errors or misunderstandings?

The marks for the paper fall within the expected range.

Students generally performed best with derivations and numerical calculations.

Many of the written (essay-type) answers focused on listing facts rather than discussing or describing as asked for in the question (for example, detailing percentage installed capacity and energy generated but without providing discussion of why these trends exist). However, there were some very strong essay-type answers which went beyond lecture notes to discuss wider points.
